

Energy in Australia

What do we know about our electricity?

What are our energy sources in Australia?

-  Coal
-  Solar Power
-  Wind Power
-  Gas
-  Oil
-  Wave Power
-  No Nuclear Power

What is the main source of energy in Australia?

We get most of our energy from coal

Where is our electricity made?

Coal converted to power in
Latrobe Valley, Victoria

What are fossil fuels?

 The fossil fuels we use here in Australia are:

 Oil

 Coal

 and Gas

What is renewable energy?

- The renewable energies that we use in Australia are:
- Wind – Wind Farms are being used in some areas
- Solar – The government subsidized the installation of solar panels and solar hot water systems so over one million houses have solar power.
- Hydro power
- Geothermal power
- Marine power

Questions

- What is the main source of energy for your electricity?
- Do you have any renewable energy use in Thailand?
- What is the main use of electricity?
- Do people worry about their energy use?
- Do you know what a carbon footprint is and what yours is?
- Is there any simple actions everybody could do to reduce energy use?